

Plough Dredging

10 - Metre Plough and A-Frame Specifications

General

Leask Marine Dredging fleet offer 10-metre plough and A-frame for all harbour and seabed dredging work scopes.

Can be operated off the stern of Leask Marine's C-Force, C-Fenna or C-Odyssey fleet vessels, providing stable, flexible, working platforms.

Whole dredging fleet are fully equipped with Eiva NaviPac Integrated Navigation Software survey equipment to provide a complete survey and bed levelling service. All vessels are offered with 4-point winch operated mooring system to allow for accurate positioning for holding the vessel in position during operations of required.

Leask Marine can offer an environmentally friendly economical solution to even out any seabed irregularities.

The plough dredging can be supported by a range of airlift solutions for specific targeted clearing.

+44 (0) 1856 874725

info@leaskmarine.co.uk

www.leaskmarine.com